BALTIMORE

ART, ANTIQUE & JEWELRY SHOW

SHOW RETURNS TO THE BALTIMORE CONVENTION CENTER FOR ITS 36TH YEAR FEATURING A NEW EXCITING SECTION

One of the country's most distinguished shows will open its doors August 25-28 showcasing more than 400 exhibitors and featuring the addition of Fine Crafts

(Baltimore, Md.) – Now celebrating its 36th year, the Baltimore Art, Antique & Jewelry Show will make its annual return to the Baltimore Convention Center August 25-28, 2016. The expansive show will present the spectacular collections of more than 400 international exhibitors, including a book fair section, and an exciting new Fine Craft section, featuring a juried exhibition of artists.

Fine art, antique and jewelry aficionados travel from all corners of the globe to explore the show's exquisite array of rare treasures from the last several thousand years, including furniture, American and European silver, major works of art, Asian antiquities, porcelain, rare manuscripts and books, Americana, antique and estate jewelry, glass, textiles, and more.

"Every year this show gets bigger and better," said Scott Diament, President and CEO of the Palm Beach Show Group. "We have dealers from all over the country that we hand-select so that everyone who attends will be able to shop the best of the best!"

The Baltimore Art, Antique & Jewelry Show is much more than your average retail show, with an extensive array of prominent estate jewelers, antiquarian book dealers, and exhibitors offering everything from majolica to contemporary art, there is truly something for everyone at the show. Acclaimed as the most anticipated event of the season, the Baltimore Art, Antique & Jewelry Show offers guests full-service restaurants, coffee bars, and lounge areas on the show floor to offer a break while they are treasure hunting.

"We believe that The Baltimore Art, Antique & Jewelry Show is the closest anyone can come to time travel," stated Diament. "Just think about it – you can come here and hold an idol made for a Russian Tsar, wear a necklace possibly, once worn by a great, great relative, or sit in a chair once owned by European royalty – the possibilities are endless. The difference between this show and a museum is that at our show, you can actually purchase and own your own pieces of history!"
