TOP SILVER SHOW IN THE UNITED STATES

38th Annual Baltimore Art, Antique & Jewelry Show

AUGUST 30 – SEPTEMBER 2, 2018 • Labor Day Weekend

(Baltimore, Maryland – June 28, 2018) – The Baltimore Art, Antique & Jewelry Show, now in its 38th year, returns Labor Day Weekend (August 30 – September 2, 2018) to the Baltimore Convention Center featuring items with a wide range of price points. Show guests can discover many great items ranging from $100 to museum quality treasures with values of more than $1,000,000.

Known amongst dealers and collectors as one of the most important silver showcases in the nation, the Baltimore show has over 30 leading silver specialists ranging from early coin, English, Georgian, Irish, Russian and Victorian to local Baltimore Stieff, modern Louis Tiffany and George Jensen. Many of the world's most influential dealers specializing in antique silver gather each Labor Day weekend in Baltimore to show their finest collection. Notable dealers include Greg Pepin Silver, Spencer Marks, Atlanta Silver & Antiques, M.S Rau Antiques and many more.

Greg Pepin Silver, based out of Denmark is best known for their collection of Danish-American silver. Greg is considered to be one of the most impressive international dealers at the Baltimore Show featuring a variety of items including hollowware, silverware, and jewellery which are known to be handpicked with provenance and quality.

Spencer Marks Ltd. of Southampton, Massachusetts is well-known amongst silver collectors as one of the most knowledgeable companies in the silver industry. A dynamic collaboration of Mark McHugh & Spencer Gordon has been the driving force of success for Spencer Marks since 1987. Over the years, Spencer Marks Antiques has obtained important presentation pieces by Paul Storr, Gorham, Tiffany and many others.
